OUR story

In 1936, Bob Wian sold his prized DeSoto Roadster to purchase a small hamburger and breakfast stand in Glendale, California. He named it Bob's Pantry. The menu was small like the restaurant's and Bob focused on great food and great hospitality. One night, a group of young jazz musicians requested something different for a change. Bob went to work and the original first double-decker hamburger was born. Customers couldn't get enough of Bob's new creation, but it needed a name... One fan in particular was a chubby six-year-old boy in droopy overalls. He would often help Bob sweep up in exchange for a free burger. In honor of his young friend, Wian decided to name the better burger the "Big Boy." Another regular customer, a movie animator, sketched the now famous character on a napkin. The rest is history!
